

FWF Glossary

The following explains some of the essential terms used in the application guidelines:

National research partners	Persons who work at a different research institution than the principal investigator and who will actually use funds for personnel, equipment and/or other costs at this research institution as part of the planned project.
National and international cooperation partners	Persons who are reasonably described in the project description as being essential for carrying out the project but will not use any project funds.
Project participants	Persons who will or have made a significant contribution to planning or carrying out the project. These include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ co-authors</li> <li>▪ national research partners, if applicable</li> <li>▪ national and international cooperation partners</li> </ul>
Territoriality principle	Stipulation that persons must have had their main place of residence in Austria for at least three of the last ten years and/or been working continuously as a researcher in Austria for the last two years prior to submitting the application.
Co-applicants	Researchers at the planned place of research who will serve as a mentor to the principal investigator on matters of research and career development for the duration of the project. Co-applicants are required only for the Lise Meitner and Firnberg career development programmes.
Host	The hosting researcher during the abroad phase of the Erwin Schrödinger Fellowship who assists the fellow in carrying out the project. She/he is also responsible for providing the required infrastructure / project-specific resources and complying with all the necessary rules and regulations during the abroad phase (see also cover sheet: "Declaration by the Host").
Cover sheet	Necessary for an FWF application to be considered officially submitted. This cover sheet is generated at the end of the submission process in the elane system and must be sent to the FWF with the required programme-specific original signatures (by conventional mail or, in conjunction with a qualified signature, via e-mail to office@fwf.ac.at ).
Forms	All the information necessary to process the electronically submitted application via elane must be included in the forms; additional required documents (such as the project description) will be uploaded as files; more detailed information can be found in the quick reference and FAQs on elane.

Annexes	Integral parts of the application document (e.g., academic curriculum vitae, etc.) to be included in the project description, in the order described in the application guidelines of the respective programme, as part of the proposal.pdf file.
Attachments	Required and optional application documents (e.g., list of reviewers who should be excluded, etc.) which are uploaded as separate files when submitting the application.